Thanks Gary. We have been told many times by residents that they see boats there quite often. Not sure what to do to deter the behavior.

Tina

Tina, Mike,

FYI, boat near the San Jacinto waste pits; Harris County suggests fishing, but hard to tell.

Looks like they have a fishing pole off the bow.

Hello,

9746052

I am wondering if you know of anyone making a Site visit today at the Pits. There is a boat awfully close and it doesn't look like a typical work boat we see out there. Photo attached. Happy to see the water level going down.

Thank you,
Jackie Young
